ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

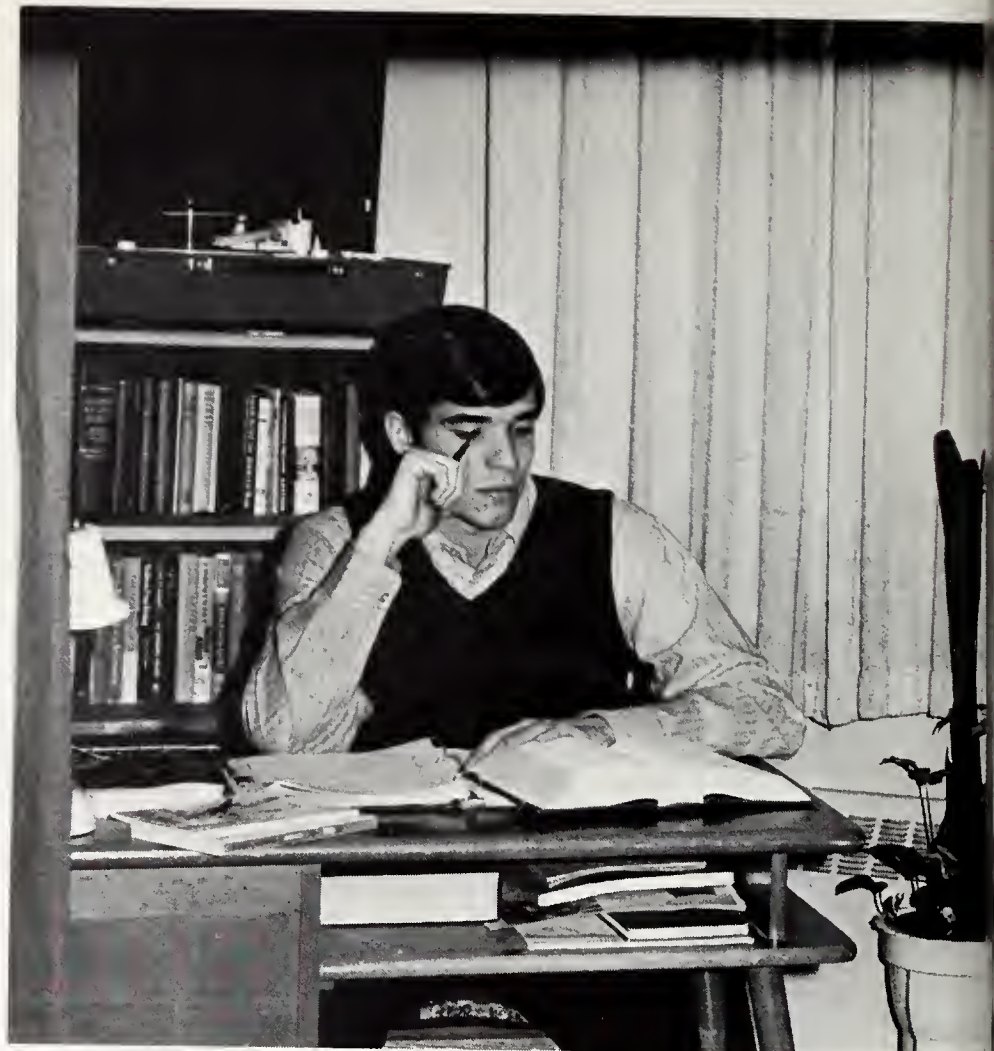

THE LIGHT TOWER 1969

FORT WAYNE BIBLE COLLEGE
800 West Rudisill Boulevard
Fort Wayne, Indiana
46897

Be Ye Followers of Christ . . .

To be like Christ . . .
this is the goal of the Christian. In being a follower of Christ, we are to be guided by the pattern that He left which is found in Luke 2:52 . . . "And Jesus
increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man." In this verse we find the four areas . . . mental, physical, spiritual and social . . . we are to follow Christ's example. Our college strives to develop these four areas in our life to the fullest extent. The mental area of our life is developed through our studies. The athletic program gives us the chance to develop physically. Through our Christian service ministries and our own devotions we grow in favor with God. Developing our social area of life is accomplished through many social events. The best way to be like Christ is, FOLLOW HIM.

Ira Gerig . . . We Dedicate This to You.

You have been more than just a teacher to the students of Fort Wayne Bible College. As we observe the life which you live before us, we see a man dedicated to his job, his school, his students, and his God. We see a man who is a true follower of Christ, who is an example for any Christian. We see a man who is a master at instrumental and vocal music, and we see a man who combines genuine wit and appreciation of good music in the conducting of song services. We also see a man with ability in the area of composing who is willing to share it by helping write several year choruses for our college. In the field of teaching, we see a man who can lead a large class or one individual student equally well. We see a man who has given more than fifteen years of his life to the service of God within the sphere of Fort Wayne Bible College.

Because we see this in your life, because you are what you are, we dedicate this 1969 Light Tower to you, Ira Gerig.

Mr. Gerig is the "King of Beasts" in his corner kingdom.

By the looks of Ira's face, he had to score this before his morning coffee.

The new harpsichord lets Mr. Gerig recreate Bach's melodies.

His "Master Touch" adds reverence to our chapel services.

Now Ira will honor us with a selection on the fanbelt.

Dr. Gerig takes a moment to relax.

Dr. Gerig, Our President

Dr. Jared F. Gerig has been president of the college since 1958. Since that time, he has led our college forward in the service of Christ. A dedicated man of God, Dr. Gerig uses his talents to help lead others down the road of life-long service. The role of teacher, traveler, pastor and president have lead him into a service which for years has been by the light of Jesus Christ. We have observed this man living before us the life which he tells us to live. He is not only our president, but also our leader in the fullest meaning of the word. As we learn not only facts and theories but also the "how-to" of spiritual living, we can look to our president as one who has trod the path of following Christ before us, one who knows the way and one who is more than willing to guide others.

The Dean of Education

Dedicated to scholarly pursuits yet also to practical principles, dedicated to educational advancement yet also to treasured tradition, and dedicated to wise supervision yet to compassionate council, Dr. Timothy M. Warner is the man whom God advanced to Dean of Education of Fort Wayne Bible College less than two years ago. Besides still teaching a few missions courses and giving advice to students and teachers, Dr. Warner finds time to narrate for the band while on tour, attend almost every function of the college, serve on various committees, and administrate the various duties of his busy office. One of his educational maxims is "let the freedom Christ gives guide a student in his search for truth, for all truth originates from the Godhead and man's mind, all minds, in fact, will ultimately acknowledge this absolute." Yes, our college has an administrator who loves his work, his faculty, staff and students, and who loves our Lord.

Dr. Warner is always ready to help students.

ADMINISTRATION

The administration of Fort Wayne Bible College takes the lead in guiding the student in all facets of his college life.

The diligence and concern of the administrators are instrumental in helping the student develop mentally, physically, socially, and spiritually. Through the courses, extracurricular activities, and Christian Service assignments, students learn to become faithful and efficient followers of Christ.

SENIORS

The senior class of Fort Wayne Bible College owes much to efficient leadership. Through the years, they have been guided into truth by the dedicated administrators and instructors of the college. But during these years of study, there has also come a growing consciousness of spiritual guidance from the greatest Leader of all. Now that school is over, we must go forth to the highest goal that a man can reach—to be a follower of Christ.

The Senior Review Ends

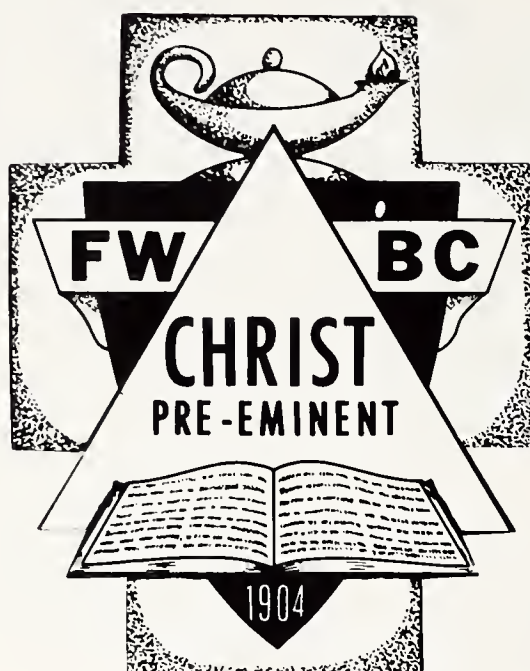

Juniors

Our lives as Fort Wayne Bible College students are almost at an end. Three years of following Him are behind us. We have watched, listened, practiced and learned. The past three years have shaped our lives through the influences of classes, informal discussions, chapel, and Christian Services assignments. Next year will draw our time of discipleship and learning to a close and will open the door of apostleship which is a time of being sent forth to teach others. We are looking forward to next year as being the highlight of our college career.

Sophomores

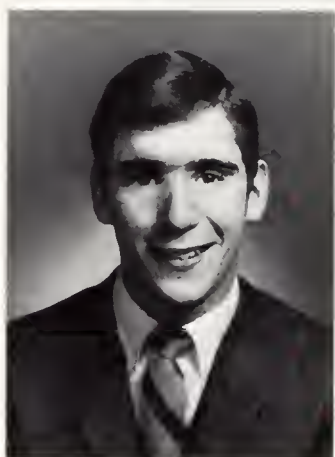

Two Years ago
we came to Fort Wayne Bible College . . .
looking for the answers.
For some of us the answers to purpose, vocation, and commitment have been made; but for others, the decisions still lie ahead.
No matter what our aims,
or desire; we are challenged
to be like Him.
Still learning and following,
we look to Him, as our example.

Freshmen

A large group of students began their academic campaign at Fort Wayne Bible College in the early fall of this year. Without a doubt, they have converted their enthusiasm into every area of their activities. Growing spiritually and developing lasting relationships has been accomplished by these students in a very short time. We look to these youths as promises not yet fulfilled as an assurance to the future of the Church. Following Christ has likewise been adopted as their battle cry. We welcome you, Freshman class. We welcome you to the army camp of the Lord.

Campus Life

A building is made up of many materials, and each part is essential for the construction of the whole. As students at Fort Wayne Bible College we are individual members of the Household of God and are here to find our place in His blueprint. The main objective in our education is not for the approval of man, but is for a higher reward . . . the stamp of approval from the Master Builder. we are the foundation of the Household of God.

Bethany Hall, the central building in north campus, houses our administrative offices, bookstore, post office, print shop and a girl's dorm.

Founders Memorial Building houses our chapel, dining hall, gymnasium, music studios and practice rooms, student lounge and classrooms.

The White House, known as 801, is home for eight freshman girls and our Dean of Women.

Built in 1948, Residence Hall provides housing for 32 freshman and upperclassman girls, staff apartments and the health center.

Leightner Hall was purchased in 1954 and since that time has been a residence for twenty-four upperclassmen girls. One staff apartment is included in the building along with the lounge which is used as a faculty and staff lounge.

Lexington dormitory graces the far side of south campus with her beautiful limestone and marble construction. It houses 100 upperclass women as well as two apartments, and provides recreation area for all students.

Several groups take advantage of the large study areas in the library for meetings.

The library was the first building erected on south campus.

The first Missionary Church graciously allows the school the use of several classrooms as well as occasionally opening its sanctuary for our chapel periods.

The Campus Castles

Wiebke House, a pioneer homestead house on South Campus was completely modernized in 1966 and houses sixteen men under an honor system.

Providence Hall was built in 1945 and is exclusively a dormitory, housing fifty-five freshmen women and four upperclass counselors.

Shultz, constructed in 1904, houses eighty men. It also includes an apartment, student lounges, a science laboratory, and the Kampus Korner snack shop. These three are just a representative of the dorms to be found on Fort Wayne Bible College Campus.

The Victorian relic that outlasted Queen Victoria.

The Hang Outs

The Kampus Korner, or the "KK" as it is known to the in-crowd, is one of the best places on campus to which the study-weary student can escape to drown his sorrows in a chocolate sprite or a cherry-root beer milk shake. The Kampus Korner also has eaves-dropped on soft sentimental conversation as well as an occasional rollicking songfest around the old piano. It fully deserves the title "The Hang-Out."

Another "Hang-Out" is the bookstore, also known as Beitler's Bargain Basement. Mrs. Beitler knows many of the students by name and works hard to offer a wide range of school supplies, candy, cards, and paraphernalia. The back of the bookstore also houses the mail-boxes and students have found out that Mrs. Beitler is willing to occasionally play postmaster and deliver to the proper box a certain "private letter."

Christian Service

One of the most important aspects of the Christian faith is reaching people. Because of this, the Fort Wayne Bible College has a Christian Service Department designed to reach people for Christ and also to give young students an opportunity to serve the Lord in local churches. Students are given preparation so that they can present a positive witness of Jesus Christ and encourage others to become followers of Him.

Spiritual Emphasis Week and Missionary Conference

Fort Wayne Bible College begins each semester with a week of spiritual emphasis. This year, the speaker scheduled for the week in September was unable to come, so the Lord blessed us through Dr. Gerig and other members of the faculty. The January semester opened with a missionary conference, "Communicating the Gospel," featuring Dr. Philip Armstrong, one of the founders of the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade.

Cartoonist Vaughn Shumaker presents his image of Uncle Sam.

Fort Wayne Bible College schedules a varied and well-chosen series of guest-artist concerts and lectures each year. The program is designed to strengthen cultural interest and knowledge in the student. Also open to the public, members of the Fort Wayne community often attend. The year of 1968-69 included such presentations as: Vaughn Shumaker, cartoonist and lecturer; Raymond MacAfee, baritone; Charles Forbes Taylor, "The Story of Jesus"; Won Mo Kim, violinist.

Activities

In all of our lives, time is an important element. As followers of Christ, we learn to spend our time rewardingly in His service. Fort Wayne Bible College offers a large area of extra-curricular activities that strive to build character as well as give students an outlet for their many hidden talents. Faculty, staff and students all work cooperatively to perform to the best of their abilities . . . abilities that the Master has given.

It Could Change Your Life

It Could Change Your Life, became the theme for the 29th annual Youth Conference held the last weekend in April of 1969. Bill Gothard, Director of the Institute in Basic Youth Conflicts in LaGrange, Illinois, spoke to some 800 teens during the weekend. This year's steering committee consisted of: Dick Baxter, Chairman; Cheryle Warner, Asst. Chairman; Linda Trail, Program; Jeray Moser, Secretary; Dick Armstrong, Treasurer; Jay Platte, Music; Jan Rowell, Publicity; Jan Stubblefield, Art; with Elmer Soden, Joy Gerig, Wayne Widder as advisors.

Youth Conference Features Bill Gothard

Representing the group this year were: Marybelle Arnholt, Pam Carey, Sue Ellis, Lorrie Ferrin, Louise Heidelberg, Sue Layman, Marsha Rigenberg, Judy Seawall, Doug Barclow, Reg Converse, Dave Clay, Ed Haynes, Dave Miller, Jerry Noble, Ron Reynolds, Larry Salsburey, and Bruce Whiteman. Thank you Collegians for a job well done.

The Singing Collegians

The Singing Collegians represented the Christian Service Department of Fort Wayne Bible College, but even more significantly they represented the Christ of whom they sang. This year presented an even bigger challenge in the Collegians ministry, a Christmas television special.

Talent seems to be a go word for this group, and more and more people are beginning to realize it. Doors have been opened to the group to perform in high schools, banquets, youth assemblies and churches, all across the country. Directed by Jay Platte, the group is made up of both men and women who have an unique blend, a blend which sings forth the message of Christ.

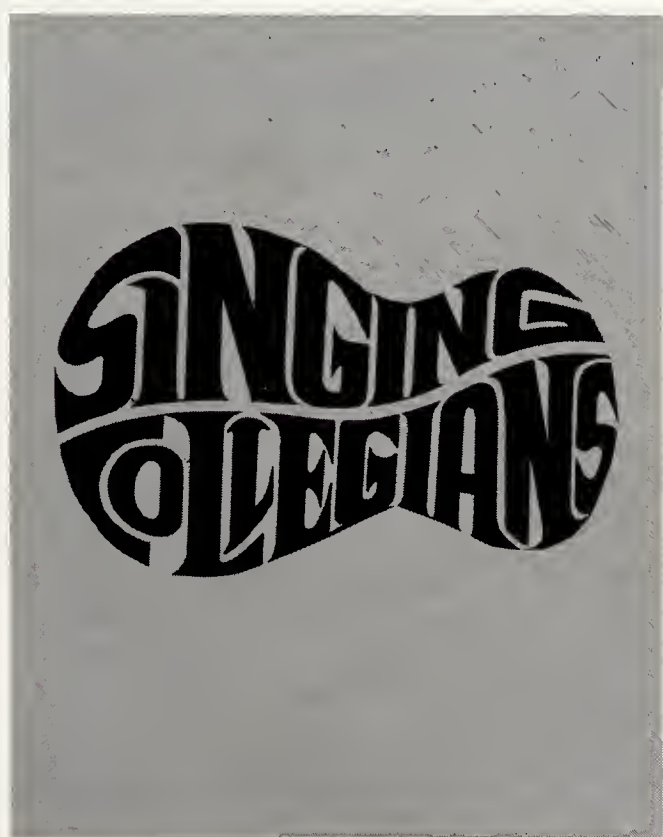

That's what happens when we make mistakes!

I told you, Jay—it only has three strings.

I hope Ira Gerig likes his Etch-a-Sketch!

The Chorale

SECOND ROW: B. Gerig, D. Blum, C. Warner, J. Cady, V. Eady, J. Seawall. THIRD ROW: D. Miller, L. Salsburey, M. Ringenberg, D. Dyck, L. Heidelberg, B. Corey, R. Boze. FOURTH ROW: E. Haynes, R. Huls, R. Thompson, D. Gifford, J. Lemon, B. Cripe.

Storming across the midwest and parts of the East, the Blue and Gold chorale presented the good news like Sherman's troops, only with angelic voices. The Chorale toured parts of the eastcoast this year, making a grand stop at Washington, D.C. Performing well, and representing Christ equally well, this group has truly learned to depend on Christ for guidance and inspiration.

The Band

The Fort Wayne Bible College band participated in many outside activities. The entire band went on an extended tour this spring. The brass ensemble also played in many of the local churches, and gained the opportunity of witnessing to many of their great Saviour. Band members included: Ruby Haring, Jan Stubblefield, Barbara Penn, Claudia Penn, Connie Quackenbush, Ric Matthew, Susan Rader, Joyce Silvis, and Elizabeth Chapman. SECOND ROW: Kathy Hughes, Linda Bellentine, Peggy Merillat, Bob Lewis, Steve Sommer, Linda Craig, Judy Tietjen, Wesley Gerig, and Max Amstutz. THIRD ROW: Paul Vulgamore, Juanita Young, Stan Runyon, Martha Buss, Gaye Morand, Cheryl Bruner, Sharon Osborne, Marilyn Anderson, Bob Peters, Joan Mayers, Bruce Braun, David Clay, and Larry Salsburey.

The Women's Chorus

Psalm 98 was chosen to be the inspiration of the women's chorus for this year. Members included Virginia Schaffer, Linda Craig, Linda Retter, Maxine Goff, Sharon Streid, Cindy King, Inez Sassaman, Becky Baskirk, Lynette Schaffner, Gloria Cox, Wendy Campbell, Peggy Merillat, Janet Zimmer, Claudette Bennett, Sharon Miller, Chris Bledsoe, Lily Yakich, Sharon Osborne, Ellen Beitler, Priscilla Rumpf, Karen Bixler, Linda Blue, Pat Brading, Joyce Barczy, Connie Blakeslee, Margaret Reigel, Sue Ursini.

1st ROW: Linda Craig, Judy Tietjen, Ric Matthew, Susan Rader, Joyce Silvis, Elizabeth Chapman, Joan Mayers.

Christmas 'Round the World, as this year's Christmas banquet was called, was a great success. Students, faculty, and guests attended in such great numbers that they filled both the cafeteria and gymnasium areas. Bruce Cripe, master of ceremonies, immediately captured everyone's attention when he bent over double to reach the microphone. Chairman Pat Hutchison planned skits of Christmas in other lands for our entertainment.

ATHLETICS

Our athletes here at school have truly worked hard this year, and although they won few prizes, they did win approval for their hard work and persistence. But none of their work would have been effective if they had not followed the directions of their coach. In just such a way we too must follow the instructions of our Leader if we are to win the incorruptible prize that will not fade away.

Outgoing Athletes

Ken gets set to score again.

Don makes a final attempt to score.

To each man . . . his own sport, to each man it was a game, a challenge. The team, the school, and the opponents are always proud of those players who have helped to reach the goal . . . winning.

Each of these players has won in his own right, and each has had a triumphal moment . . . a moment of victory.

Winning the game was not always accomplished . . . but winning for Christ was always their victory.

Roger always looks like a tiger.

Concentration before the windup.

The Coach

Somebody has to plan ahead.

Coach and team need warming up before the game.

Coach Morley is always lending a helping hand.

For the coach, getting the team in shape is only half the job. A steady stream of patience, guidance, playing, and pain are all parts of the job. Any team can be good . . . but what distinguishes the good teams from the great teams is the coach.

Behind the scene action, joy, and sorrow are all part of the man . . . Steve Morley . . . our coach.
